PROFILE

Leah Cortez is a graphic designer and artist who creates bold and symbolic visual work. Her style combines gothic elements, surreal imagery, and strong color contrast to tell personal and emotional stories through design. She works across digital and physical formats including brand identity, zines, stickers, and mixed media projects.

Leah is currently studying graphic design and brings a strong understanding of visual storytelling, concept development, and hands-on creative skills. Her design approach focuses on building meaningful systems, exploring personal themes, and creating art that feels powerful, intentional, and emotionally driven.
